

Family Weekend – Marietta College September 23, 24 and 25, 2011

Marietta College encourages fellowship with family and friends of Marietta College students and sets aside a special weekend each year for this purpose. We are happy to share with you some of the special events planned for Family Weekend 2011. Events span many interests – whether you are a parent of a first-year students or an old friend of MC.

The schedule is designed to allow for plenty of time to enjoy and share in your student's MC experience. We have organized the schedule to allow you the greatest flexibility in choosing activities that meet your interests. Please continue to check the Marietta College website for current schedules and information. Families arriving for Family Weekend should proceed directly to the Family Weekend Welcome Center, located in Andrews Hall at the Information Desk, to pick-up Family Weekend materials.

Please let us know if you need special accommodations or have a question. Call Bruce Peterson, Dean of Students at 740-376-4784 or 740-376-4531
