

Diversity and Global Perspectives – General Education Confirmation Form

The requirement in Diversity and Global Perspectives prepares students to understand diversity within their own society, the role of culture in shaping human lives, and the relations among states or groups of people. Dimensions of diversity include but are not limited to race, ethnicity, gender, physical or mental ability, religion, language, socio-economic status and sexual orientation. These courses prepare students to live and work in a diverse society and a connected, interdependent world. While any two courses will fulfill the requirement, a student whose first course is in a language is strongly encouraged to fulfill the second requirement with a second course in that language.

Specific criteria required for Diversity and Global Perspectives courses:

Course number and title: _____

Course must address one of the following: (Please indicate which criteria this course meets)

_____ 1. Culture: Focus on at least one culture through the study of one or more of the following:

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> Social structures | <input type="radio"/> Religions |
| <input type="radio"/> Historical traditions and customs | <input type="radio"/> Languages |
| <input type="radio"/> Politics | <input type="radio"/> Economics |

_____ 2. Diversity: Explore the diverse backgrounds and characteristics found among humans through the examination of at least one of the following:

- | | |
|--|------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> Age | <input type="radio"/> Disability |
| <input type="radio"/> Ethnicity | <input type="radio"/> Gender |
| <input type="radio"/> Race | <input type="radio"/> Religion |
| <input type="radio"/> Sexual orientation | <input type="radio"/> Social class |

_____ 3. Global Perspectives:

- Compare and understand some factor or set of issues in different cultural or regional settings
- Investigate the relationships among states or groups of people.

If necessary, use the space below to explain how this course meets the criteria noted above.

Name _____ Department _____