Valley Gem Sternwheeler

The Valley Gem was built in 1989 and can accommodate 300 passengers. The lower deck is fully enclosed with heat or air-conditioning, and half of the upper deck is covered by an awning. Bad weather is not a problem! On the lower deck there is a snack shop, gift shop, and restrooms. Both the Valley Gem and the landing wharf are fully handicapped accessible. Tickets for 90-minute sightseeing cruises, dinner cruises, and the fall foliage tours can be purchased at the Valley Gem Landing Wharf at Front and Washington Streets, under the Washington Street Bridge.
740-373-7862

The Castle

With its octagonal tower, trefoil attic window, and stone capped spires, The Castle is one of the best executed examples of Gothic Revival style architecture in Ohio. Interior architectural details include a scagliola fireplace surround, coodge papier-mache moldings, and floor to ceiling shutters on the parlor's bay window. The house, once the home of Ohio Senator Theodore Davis, is furnished with items of historical significance to the area, as well as those typical of the Victorian Era. Educational programs, special events, and changing exhibits are featured throughout the year. The Carriage House Visitors Center includes introductory exhibit and videotape on the history of the site and its families that resided in The Castle. The Historic House Museum is on the National Historic Register.
