

MC junior looks forward to next overseas' venture

Beaver Falls, Pa., native Liz Nowry spent the fall semester at La Universidad de Castilla La Mancha.

By JON SECHKAR
MC College Relations

Marietta College junior Liz Nowry, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Nowry of Beaver Falls, Pa., and the late Priscilla Nowry, recently completed the fall semester studying at La Universidad de Castilla La Mancha in Toledo, Spain.

Nowry's trip proved to be a great experience, and she looks forward to traveling overseas again.

"Being abroad has really opened my eyes to a new culture. I was able to travel all over the country and see spectacular places," said Liz Nowry, a graduate of Riverside High School in Ellwood City, Pa. "I've learned a lot about the country and about myself. If given the chance, I would go again."

Nowry is double majoring in Spanish and International Business Management. After graduation she hopes to pursue a career working for a large corporation dealing primarily with Spanish speaking clients.

Nowry is involved in the Leadership Program, cheerleading, and is a member of the Chi Omega Sorority.

"I chose Marietta College mainly because of the Leadership Program," she said. "When I came here to visit, I fell in love with the campus. The size of the College is perfect for me and there were so many opportunities and organizations to become involved in."

Marietta College encourages its students to study abroad and to participate in a number of opportunities for educational study outside the College, which do not interrupt their affiliation

Photo by Tom Perry/College Relations

Marietta College junior Liz Nowry enjoyed studying at La Universidad de Castilla La Mancha in Toledo, Spain, during the fall semester. Jamison will graduate in 2005 with a degree in Spanish and International Business Management. She was attracted to Marietta College because of its small campus and the McDonough Leadership Program. Marietta College encourages students to study abroad to participate in a number of opportunities for educational study outside the College.

with the College. Marietta College has established formal relationships with several national and foreign institutions, which makes it easy for students to find a place in which they will study. The College considers approved study abroad programs as an extension of its campus and transfers grades earned without question.