

HOWARD WRITING SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

I. Eligibility

- (a) A Howard Prize candidate must be a full-time junior or first-semester senior at Marietta College.
- (b) The student can be a major in any academic field.

2. The Portfolio

- (a) The candidate should submit a portfolio of writing to the Administrative Coordinator, Kristen Thompson, (kmt001@marietta.edu) by 4 p.m. Friday, February, 21, 2020.
- (b) The portfolio should include 4 to 6 examples of a nominee's best writing.
- (c) The portfolio must contain at least one substantial piece of analytical expository writing but may include several other types of writing--scripts, fiction, drama, poetry, informal essays, journalistic articles, etc.
- (d) The material in the portfolio must have been written during the nominee's years at Marietta College.
- (e) Papers that have been evaluated by professors may be revised and, whether revised or not, must be reprinted. All manuscripts must be printed (not hand-written).
- (f) The writer's name should appear only on a cover sheet, not on the separate entries.
- (g) The portfolio becomes the property of the Department of English and Modern Languages.

3. The Prizes

- (a) The Howard Prize is a credit applied to the student's tuition for the semester following the award.

4. The Reading Committee

The reading committee is composed of four faculty members: one from the English and Modern Languages Department, one from the Mass Media Department, one from a department in the social sciences, and one from a department in the natural sciences/mathematics.

All portfolio submissions and questions regarding the Howard Writing Prize should be addressed to Amy Williams, Department of English and Modern Languages (aew008@marietta.edu).
