

Bullying is a widespread problem occurring in schools across the country. Throughout my presentation I will cover the issues that lead to bullying in schools and ways to help all of those affected. This includes the victims, the bullies and the bystanders. With an issue occurring so often and leading to fatal incidents, knowledge needs to be spread, and prevention tactics must be put in place.