

This research project brings awareness to how Marietta College keeps all of its students and faculty members safe. One of the main reasons our campus is so safe is because of the Marietta College Police Department (MCPD) which provides on-duty officers 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. They offer personal safety tips and classes for students. Creating PSAs will help bring additional safety communication to the students of Marietta College.