

Two Fleets One Pad's focus is on providing maximum return to shareholders while improving the communities where we operate. We strive for perfection with environmental protection and safe work environments. With our Chaser Shale project we're looking at a potential unconventional natural gas field by evaluating a wild cat nearby. If determined economic, we will drill and complete the well to produce the maximum amount of gas. Bringing large returns to shareholders while also improving the community.