

Deplorable Energy Corporation is a natural gas company engaged in the exploration, development and production of onshore natural gas properties. Our core values – Safety, Performance, Innovation, Integrity and Transparency – guide us in the work we do every day from the boardroom to the well pad. Our goal for this project is to successfully drill and produce an economically viable well in the Chaser Shale of the Marietta Field, while also taking environmental considerations into account.