

The Energy Business Alliance Team will be presenting the work they have done independently over the past year as a continuation of last year's presentation. It will cover the completion and production of the lateral wells within their simulation that were presented on last year and how we plan to continue our work next year. There will also be a handing over of the torch from the current leadership to next semester's leadership.