

At Miracle Shale, we focus on the responsible and safe exploration and development of oil and natural gas. We strive to achieve the values which our company is founded upon, meeting all environmental standards while adding value to the performance of our company. Our latest venture involves evaluating, developing, and producing the Marietta Field Chaser Shale while focusing on the economic viability and potential production of the field.