

This poster presentation will give insight into my experience gained at the Cherry Bundi Boca Raton Bowl. This project illustrates what it is like to work with large media at college bowl games. My objective is to provide a rundown of what looks like work behind the scenes of the camera.