

Moderock Resources is an operator dedicated to supplying a sustainable source of energy, generating shareholder value, and maintaining an innovative and collaborative community. They have done some initial work evaluating, producing, and developing their assets in the Chaser Shale of the Marietta Field. Now, Moderock will present their findings with an emphasis on their economic outlook and the next steps for their company.