

We will be defining what music therapy is and the benefits it has. Specifically, we will discuss the session we attended that dealt with dementia. Along with the session information, we will go in-depth about how it was beneficial to us students who are and were studying music therapy. This presentation will be displayed on a poster board.