

Dynaco Petroleum Corporation is an energy producer and provider that strives to achieve harmonious development between business in energy, energy operations, and ethical responsibilities. To realize our mission, we have begun exploration of the Marietta Field Chaser Shale through evaluation, development, and eventual production of the reservoir, while adhering to our commitment to the pursuit of a sustainable world by minimizing the environmental impacts of our operations.