

This is a poster for the athletic training programs annual trip to the student conference in Atlanta, GA. During this conference, students are able to learn and supplement their classroom knowledge into clinical practice. Students are able to hear presentations from experienced athletic trainers and are also able to see the research students around the country are doing in their undergraduate research.