

This poster presentation will include the valuable experience gained while working at the Boca Raton Bowl Game in Florida this past December. While working hand in hand with ESPN, Good Karma Brands, and Florida Atlantic University Athletics we were able to learn multiple aspects of the sport industry and game day operations with a hands-on job shadow experience that is unattainable in the classroom.