

EdChoice vouchers allow students that meet the requirements, to apply for a scholarship that if chosen, covers most if not all costs of attending a chosen private school. This presentation will go in depth of what EdChoice vouchers are to see the positive impact the vouchers have on families wanting other schooling options. In contrast, we will also examine the effects the vouchers are having on public schools who are losing these students.