

I was a scene partner for one of my fellow theatre majors to participate in a national theatre scholarship competition. We performed a three minute audition at our regional festival for the possibility of scholarship qualification for my partner, Gwen Sour. We did not make it to the second round, but we received good experience, exposure, and critiques.