Career Readiness Program

All students completing a major in the Department of Business & Economics must complete the Core Professional Readiness Badge requirements. To earn the Core Professional Readiness Badge, students must complete ALL of the following:

- RESUME REVIEWS: Two reviews by the Center for Entrepreneurship and Career Development (CECD) or another approved professional. Reviews must occur in different academic years.
- COVER LETTER REVIEWS: Two reviews by CECD or an approved professional. Reviews must occur in different academic years.
- ONE MOCK INTERVIEW: One mock interview with CECD or a field-relevant professional.
- LINKEDIN PROFILE REVIEW: One review by CECD or an approved professional.
- PROFESSIONAL GROUP NETWORKING EVENTS: Attend six qualifying events (e.g., Lunch & Learn, Business Q&A, industry meetups). No more than three events may count from any one academic year.
- SEMINAR: Participate in one discipline-specific seminar or workshop (e.g., BIG Workshop, McDonough Executive in Residence series, professional conference).

Note: All experiences must be pre-approved before beginning.

The Career Readiness Program also includes two optional badges: Career Engagement Badge and Advanced Professional Distinction Badge. See the College Catalog for details on the requirements for these optional badges.
